

Listed Buildings Within the OWGRA Area

The National Heritage list for England is 70 years old this year, having been started amid the ruins left by the second world war. Administered by Historic England, the list has 400,000 entries, including 710 windmills, 262 palaces, 72 piers, 16 plague crosses and 13 dung pits.

To mark the anniversary of the protection system, five new Grade II listings have been made. These include a Jewish cemetery, an underground home described as a 'luxury hobbit house' and a rare surviving green painted Edwardian cabbies' shelter.

There are many listings in the OWGRA area, including several in Osterley Park, Gillette, the old Borough Road College and the statue in the grounds of Campion House.
